

Costs Management in Civil Litigation / Conference Invitation

An event co-hosted by Thirty Nine Essex Street Chambers, Ellis Grant and Feesability

Tuesday 23rd November 2010
9:00h to 12:30h

Vandervell Lecture Theatre
Royal College of Surgeons
35-43 Lincoln's Inn Fields
London WC2A 3PE

Keynote Address by:
Lord Justice Jackson

Conference Chair:
Jeremy Morgan QC

Cost per delegate

£175 plus VAT (£150 plus VAT if booked and paid for by Friday 22 October 2010)

Costs Management was one of the key themes of The Jackson Report. It is already being piloted and is almost certain to be introduced far more widely in the near future.

This is the first conference of its kind to focus solely on what Costs Management means to the practitioner, how it is being introduced into litigation by the courts and by commercial clients and what solicitors need to do in order to respond.

CPD Hours: 3

Who should attend

- Senior Civil Litigators
- In-house Costs Managers
- In-house Lawyers

Topics Covered

- Progress Report on Jackson Implementation
- Review of relevant authorities and rule changes
- Costs Budgeting – Methodology and Standards
- Integrating costs budgeting with time recording and costs assessment
- How technology can assist
- The client perspective

The conference will be chaired by Jeremy Morgan QC, the leading Costs Silk, who was also one of the Assessors on the Jackson inquiry.

The speakers will be

Lord Justice Jackson
